Your reporter joined the countless others who roamed the grounds at the County Fair at Pomona Sunday. First stop was the model homes and then and there my husband and I rebuilt our hacienda from the front porch to the service porch! It was fun to take the shingles off and put on shake shingles in one sentence! The domestic building as always was a challenge, the room mothers of North Torrance Elementary School would be interested to know that the theme used in last year's dinner is a popular one for a similar cake decorated as a Bonnet supported a ribbon. Table settings were unique, a platter party for teenagers using records as a center piece with a menu carried out in titles of popular tunes of the day. The guests were served from oversize platters. The 'ever-lovin' spent much time viewing the sport jobs which were breathtaking in a gorgeous array of red and white leather upholstery, you're invited to the temperature climbed up to the 100 mark.

Also enjoying the rounds of sightseeing is Mrs. John Ratterree, of Fort Smith, sister of Mr. Babb. Daily trips to the points of interest have been taken and the out-of-towners thoroughly enjoyed the visit.

News from Mrs. Peggy Sale, who formerly resided on Ardath Ave., that they consider themselves back in circulation now that the homes located near 171st and Prairie have telephones and mail service to the door. For months the area was rural with boxes lining 171st. Also living in this tract is Mrs. Betty Mangall who resided on Ardath Ave.

Meet Mr. and Mrs. Norman Stokes, formerly of East St. Louis, Ill., who have recently purchased the home of Raymond Adams, 1702 Clumbury Ave. Having spent a month trying to decide where to buy, they considered Torrance a beautiful spot. Glowing plans of landscaping emanate from this friendly couple. Welcome to our city!

With baskets made of stars, and wearing the popular red, yellow, and blue cape of Superman, the small-try gathered at the home of Duke Cortez, 17516 Casie, to celebrate his fourth birthday. The cake was white with cherries resembling the planets! Was it a bird? Or was it a plane! No! It was Superman flying in the air performing his duty to mankind above the cake. Very authentic. Among the prize possessions received by Master Cortez was an SC letterman's sweater and goldfish.

HOUSE-TO-HOUSE . . . Scout Tommy Smoot, and Auxiliary Policeman Stephen Foster call on Mrs. Lillian Dye, 1609 Cota Ave., while making their rounds of the city this week to distribute literature about Fire Prevention Week. Other Scouts and TAPs assisted city fire officials in "spreading the word" about fire prevention measures.

DEER HUNTING GOOD . . . Opening week-end deer hunting in the Inyo-Mono area was good, considering the great number of nimrods participating, the Outing Bureau of the Automobile Club of Southern California said this week.

These girls of Intermediate and Junior High troops will enjoy a pot-luck dinner with each troop supplying a course. Gifts of clothing, sewing material and soaps will be donated for friends overseas. Announcing Mrs. Peggy Ball, neighborhood chairman, an estimated 85 girls will participate from troop numbers 1364, 1295, 1368, 1277, and 1371.

The first Court of Honor of the Explorer 761X troop will be held at the home of J. Hedgecock, 16780 Yukon, Oct. 13. Crew Advisor Reese Holbrook will present the 10 scouts with the honor awards due them at a fireside ceremony. Refreshments will be served by the Mothers club according to publicity chairman Helen Holbrook.

Birthday congratulations to Ronnie Gastelum who invited friends over for a party in honor of his seventh birthday.

The Gershal Babbs, 17209 Ardath, have entertained for the past three weeks the parents of Mr. Babb, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Babb, of Fort Smith, Ark.
